

FACULTY & ADVISORS

A photograph of a woman with short brown hair, wearing a light blue top and a pearl necklace, smiling warmly at a young woman with blonde hair tied back, wearing a dark blue blazer. They are seated at a dining table with a plate of food and a glass. In the background, another woman in a yellow top is visible, and the setting appears to be a restaurant or dining hall.

Will my teachers know who I really am?

MEANS GIRLS GET
ALL THE SUPPORT THAT THEY NEED.

A HOME-LIKE ATMOSPHERE FOR LEARNING. Eighty percent of our faculty live on the campus, many with their spouses and children. You'll see them on the River Lawn, in the dining room, around town and in class. They're a part of our daily life. And they make SMS feel like home. Which is great. Because they're more than teachers, they're adults who care about us.

TWICE A WEEK, STUDENTS SHARE AN INFORMAL, SEATED LUNCH WITH THEIR ADVISOR IN OUR BEAUTIFUL, WATERFRONT DINING HALL. THEY OFFER ADVICE, FRIENDSHIP AND MENTORING.

We know that girls learn best when they collaborate, so that's how we teach them. Which gives them the confidence to try tough subjects.

FACULTY AND STAFF ARE YOUR PARTNERS. Teachers, advisors and dorm parents have worked with hundreds of students during their tenure here. Many hold advanced degrees. Five are even St. Margaret's graduates. All have made education their life's work. They know what teens are like, but they also see each girl as an individual. Communication is frequent, honest and two-way. At St. Margaret's, a strong family/school partnership helps girls grow.
