A group of young women are gathered outdoors, likely at a wedding. One woman in the foreground is holding a large bouquet of red roses. Another woman next to her is looking down at a white card or document she is holding. The scene is brightly lit, suggesting a sunny day.

Where can I go from here?

COMMENCEMENT IS THE BEGINNING. You are glad and a little sad. Looking forward to going home. To college. Success. Holding back tears as you hug your advisor, your teacher, your best friend. You'll be back on the River Lawn before you know it. For your first class reunion. Your daughter's campus visit. And maybe your own commencement address to the class of 2035.

GIRLS GO ON TO COLLEGES LIKE UVA, UNC, SMITH, WILLIAM & MARY, AND HOPKINS.

RETURN ON AN INVESTMENT. Nearly all of our graduates go straight to their choice of public and private, four-year colleges and universities. Many earn merit-based scholarships and gain entry into special programs. Our personalized college counseling makes the difference. By the end of junior year, each girl is considering 10-15 handpicked colleges, has attended a college fair, visited a college admission office, completed the Common Application—and learned how to market herself.
